Sample Course Description from Catalog

Latin America: The Invisible Continent
CSUCI Broome Library 2325
10 a.m. to noon | 8 weeks (8/28-10/23) No class 9/4
OLLI 1005 Class Nbr 3083

With a population approaching 700 million (twice that of the United States), Latin America is a region that is vitally important to the United States in many ways. Despite its proximity to our shores, this collection of diverse nations draws little attention from the American media compared to other areas of the world such as Europe, Asia, and the Middle East. In this course, we will take a look at why Latin America matters as we gain appreciation for its rich culture and history from pre-Hispanic times to the present.

Stephen Clark, Ph.D., received his doctorate from the University of Colorado with a dissertation on autobiographical writings of Cuban exiles. He lived in Spain where he completed his master’s degree. His publications include criticism, literary translations, interviews of major Cuban writers, and book reviews. He has taught at Northern Arizona University and Indiana State University and is currently a Professor of Spanish at CSUCI. He enjoys teaching Latin American literature, literary translation, and Latin American culture and civilization.
