Who's Who in our OLLI Community

Meet Lauraine Effress, New 2021 OLLI Member and Volunteer

I have been asked to explain how I got to be the me I am today and why that "me" has become an Olli volunteer. By birth, I was a New Yorker. 21 birthdays later I was a Peace Corps volunteer in West Africa. 24 birthdays, a social worker; 26, director of a mental health center for deaf emotionally disturbed children. By 45, I tired of the cold in wintertime New York while watching the annual Rose Parade. It changed my life. I looked at the parade on TV, the flowers, and the people taking off their sweaters. I said to the TV, "I am leaving." Luck was with me.

In no time, I was doing similar work for a nonprofit start-up here on the left coast in Ventura County and was swimming in the pool every morning before work. I did important work in social services and mental health, but a family crisis and health problems waylaid my career. In retirement I had the time to develop other interests, which brought me to OLLI.

Being an OLLI student then a volunteer on the Membership Team is a new chapter for me. I hoped that by volunteering on the Membership Team, I might make a difference. (Editor's note: She has). I wish to help increase the familiarity with OLLI in senior communities of our county that, so far, seem unaware of this opportunity to stimulate the brain and delve into topics for which we never had time in our earlier years. Seniors need to work out to maintain our health. OLLI offers a workout for the brain, so the more seniors that know about it, the smarter we will be.

Come and Participate in the Open Gallery at Studio Channel Islands

Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 2, 2021 from 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm for an outdoor social event at the covered parking area behind the Studio Channel Islands Gallery. Come and participate in Open Gallery – visit the area's best artists in their studios to watch them create sculptures, paintings and multimedia pieces up-close and personal. Then socialize with fellow OLLI members in an outdoor setting with the opportunity for some sweet treats. Studio CI is at 2222 E. Ventura Blvd, Camarillo 93010 – in the middle of Old Town. Watch your email for more information and how to RSVP. Come join us for a face-to-face OLLI get together.

Are You an OLLI Volunteer Candidate?

Admit it – you love OLLI. But it takes more than love for OLLI to continue to provide the quality courses you have come to expect. OLLI is what it is because of our volunteers. Without volunteers, you would not have this newsletter or the October 2nd social gatherings at Studio CI. The OLLI Program staff can easily enroll you as a volunteer for whatever time you have available. Just contact Michael Trainor by email at OLLI@csuci.edu.
