EMPRESS DOWAGER CIXI: SELECTIONS FROM THE SUMMER PALACE Sunday, January 21, 2018

Empress Dowager Cixi (1835-1908) stands in the center of modern Chinese history. While most commonly understood as a politician, this formidable matriarch is also introduced to the Western audience as a connoisseur, patron and even creator of art in the early twentieth century. Through a groundbreaking partnership with the Summer Palace Museum in Beijing, this exhibition reconstructs the matriarch's life in the Summer Palace featuring a replica of her throne room.

Dr. Bill Garlington and Dr. BJ Fan will enhance and heighten this unique experience providing additional knowledge, interesting facts, and fables.

Summer Palace, Beijing
